

Green Chart for Your Sunday School Class

Check (✓)	Tip for Greening your Sunday School Classroom
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Walk through your classroom with an eye for being green. Make a list of things that you see that could be improved</li> </ul>
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Use white or chalk boards and overhead projectors instead of handouts</li> </ul>
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Use scrap paper when you can for writing and drawing; ask members of the congregation to donate paper from their offices</li> </ul>
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Use the least amount of a product to complete the job especially in regards to art projects</li> </ul>
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Share resources with other classrooms so fewer art supplies for instance can be bought and used up before they become unusable</li> </ul>
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Have recycle bins in each classroom for paper, aluminum cans, etc. that find their way into Sunday school classrooms</li> </ul>
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Ask for church members to donate their old computers and other technology to the church for use in classrooms</li> </ul>
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Create your own check list for your classroom to remind you to do things like turn off the lights, turn thermostats up, etc. each week</li> </ul>
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Use water based paints and other environmentally friendly products when sprucing up your classrooms</li> </ul>
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• When doing art projects, use environmentally safe products and stay away from using food products that could be donated to a food bank</li> </ul>
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Use green facial tissues that are chlorine-free; brands such as Seventh Generation are becoming easier to find in most stores</li> </ul>
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Use environmentally friendly cleaning supplies to clean furniture, etc.</li> </ul>
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Use green school supplies that have been made from recycled materials</li> </ul>
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Use energy saving light bulbs</li> </ul>
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Open blinds or curtains in lieu of turning on the lights</li> </ul>
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• If you use fresh paper, be sure to plan activities that use both sides of the paper or save paper for another Sunday project</li> </ul>
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Pick up trash in the classroom and recycle what can be recycled</li> </ul>