

Historical Foundation
Cumberland Presbyterian Church
Cumberland Presbyterian Church in American

General Regulation F.1.b.

The Historical Foundation shall consist of representatives of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church in America and six members of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, one member from each of the five synods plus one person elected at large, and that no two persons shall be elected from the same presbytery.

The current CPC Board membership is:

Synod of Great Rivers - 1 member from West Tennessee Presbytery (Gwen McReynolds) is Rotating off. Opening for Arkansas, Missouri, or West Tennessee Presbyteries.

Synod of Midwest - 1 member from Covenant Presbytery (Sidney Milton)

Mission Synod - 2 members

1 member from Presbytery del Cristo (Pam Davis)

1 member from Trinity Presbytery (Mary Kathryn Kirkpatrick)

Synod of Southeast - 1 member from Grace Presbytery (Sidney Swindle)

Tennessee Synod - 1 member from Murfreesboro Presbytery (Rev. Tommy Jobe)

Desired Skills for Trustees

1. Computer literacy and internet connectivity.
2. A strong belief in the value of history and heritage.
3. Knowledge of historical technique and technical writing.
4. Good general knowledge of United States political and religious history.
5. Solid grounding in Cumberland Presbyterian history.
6. Working knowledge of Cumberland Presbyterian polity and judicatories both current and prior to 1988 realignment.
7. Ability and interest in advocacy for archival preservation and the Historical Foundation at judicatorial levels.
8. Desire to obtain and preserve relevant historical data and/or objects for the collection of the Historical Foundation.
9. Desire to encourage and develop the pursuit and expression of Cumberland Presbyterian History and Heritage in all suitable ways.